Ash

Elena

For her excellence across all areas of learning this week. Elena has been brilliant at using mathematical language to describe number stories and writing super sentences in drawing club.

Mrs Laffan

Oak

Connor

For working independently in his writing. When writing a set of instructions, Connor was able to write his steps in the correct sequence. In addition to this, he has been working hard on his presentation and handwriting.

Well done Connor!

Mrs Salt

22.05.2026

Elm Lyla

For her perseverance and resilience in Art, even with an injured hand. Lyla worked really hard to create a unique figurine in the style of the ancient Sumerians, using techniques and design elements learnt from each lesson.

Mrs Shipley-Smith

Birch

William

For always trying his best with his work, particularly his writing. William strives to be better each time and his determination shows in every piece he creates. Well done, William!

Miss Taggart

22.05.2026

Willow Lily

For a super recount of our fabulous trip to Warwick Castle. Lily included all of the key events and punctuated all of her sentences accurately.

Well done Lily!

Miss Dawson & Miss Higgins

Aspen

Darcey S

For

*Working really hard to improve her writing and write more.
Well done!*

Mrs Read & Mrs Davies

Chestnut

Nina

Nina's work in the afternoon has been fantastic whatever the subject. This has been most evident in her art and computing. Her art always shows off her excellent imagination and our 3D digital modelling lessons has allowed her to also make brilliant use of her imagination.

Mr Tennuci

Redwood

Max

For focussing on your presentation , particularly in English. I have noticed how hard you are working on improving your handwriting both in the lesson and in morning DNA. Well done!
