

Wow Assembly:

Friday 27th March 2026

Scientists of the Week!

Ash-Explorer of the Week:-Percy

Oak - Ayla

Aspen- Callen

Willow- Freyja

Chestnut- Casper

Birch- Amber

Redwood- Francesca

Elm- Olivia

Green Cards!

Rosa – Oak
Sadie – Oak
Leo A – Oak
River – Oak
George – Oak
Chloe – Oak
Lily – Oak
Maevie – Oak
Flora – Oak
Shay C - Oak
Excel – Redwood
Clara - Redwood
Carla - Redwood

Ash

Delilah

*For her super writing about the visit to the farm.
Delilah listened carefully to the sounds in words and tried to keep her writing neat.*

Mrs Laffan

27.03.2026

Oak

Jack

For showing resilience this week when counting in twos. Jack worked hard counting concrete objects that were in groups of two.
Well done Jack!

Mrs Salt

27.03.2026

Elm Mollie

For her super resilience in PE trying out different Kwik Cricket skills and techniques then combining them to take on a game.
Keep up the super effort!

Mrs Shipley-Smith

27.03.2026

Birch Heather

For displaying all of our Woodlands RESPECT attributes whilst visiting Poole's Cavern. She represented herself and our school beautifully and was a shining example to others

Miss Taggart

27.03.2026

Willow

Noah B

Noah is a great member of Willow class. He always tries his best and has a wonderful attitude towards his learning. He is really enjoying Lexia and it is showing a great improvement with his reading. Well done Noah!

Miss Dawson & Miss Higgins

27.03.2026

Aspen

Leo

For

Putting extra effort into his writing. He has raised his level of writing brilliantly, including more content and description with a great range of punctuation.

Mrs Read & Mrs Davies

27.03.2026

Chestnut

Ella J

For showing excellence in everything she does throughout the school day, but especially with her writing and P.E. this week. Her writing style continues to improve and Ella always demonstrates a fantastic ability in every P.E. theme.

Mr Tennuci

27.03.2026

Redwood

Florrie

For superb focus and resilience in English. Florrie has concentrated hard, used her buddy to help and applied her learning to her writing. She produced an excellent setting description showing great progress.

Mrs Holliday

27.03.2026