

Identifying the Subject and Object of a Sentence

Circle the subject and underline the object.

1. The boys found an old book.
2. The lady opened the door.
3. He drove a bus.
4. James climbed the hill.
5. The teacher instructed the class.
6. Lucy washed the dishes.
7. The man watched the boats.
8. They opened their presents.
9. Chris ate an apple.
10. Jane opened the fridge

Identifying the Subject and Object of a Sentence Answers

Circle the subject and underline the object.

1. The boys found an old book.
2. The lady opened the door.
3. He drove a bus.
4. James climbed the hill.
5. The teacher instructed the class.
6. Lucy washed the dishes.
7. The man watched the boats.
8. They opened their presents.
9. Chris ate an apple.
10. Jane opened the fridge.

Identifying the Subject and Object of a Sentence

Circle the subject and underline the object.

1. The boys found an old, unusual book.
2. The lady broke the door down.
3. They parked the car quickly.
4. James slowly climbed the steep hill.
5. The teacher stopped the class with a shout.
6. Lucy rehearsed the dance all afternoon.
7. The man watched the boats in the harbour.
8. The brothers ripped open their presents.
9. Suddenly, Chris spotted the diving board.
10. The firefighter put out the fire.

Identifying the Subject and Object of a Sentence Answers

Circle the subject and underline the object.

1. The boys found an old, unusual book.
2. The lady broke the door down.
3. They parked the car quickly.
4. James slowly climbed the steep hill.
5. The teacher stopped the class with a shout.
6. Lucy rehearsed the dance all afternoon.
7. The man watched the boats in the harbour.
8. The brothers ripped open their presents.
9. Suddenly, Chris spotted the diving board.
10. The firefighter put out the fire.

Identifying the Subject and Object of a Sentence

Circle the subject and underline the object.

1. The excited boys found an unusual and dusty book.
2. The old lady broke the door down violently.
3. After eating, they paid the bill.
4. James, looking up nervously, slowly climbed the steep hill.
5. At the front of the room, the teacher calmly instructed the class.
6. All afternoon, Lucy practised her dance routine.
7. The quiet man watched the sailing boats.
8. The brothers ripped open their presents excitedly.
9. Suddenly, Chris spotted the tallest diving board.'
10. The brave firefighter frantically fought the fire.

Identifying the Subject and Object of a Sentence Answers

Circle the subject and underline the object.

1. The excited boys found an unusual and dusty book.
2. The old lady broke the door down violently.
3. After eating, they paid the bill.
4. James, looking up nervously, slowly climbed the steep hill.
5. At the front of the room, the teacher calmly instructed the class.
6. All afternoon, Lucy practised her dance routine.
7. The quiet man watched the sailing boats.
8. The brothers ripped open their presents excitedly.
9. Suddenly, Chris spotted the tallest diving board.
10. The brave firefighter frantically fought the fire.