

Wow Assembly:

Friday 5th June 2026

Scientists of the Week!

Ash-Explorer of the Week:-Finlay

Oak - Winston

Aspen- Freya

Willow- Alfie

Chestnut- Casper

Birch- Millie

Redwood- Liylie

Elm - Alice

Green Cards!

Scarlett – Oak

Noah – Elm

Lexie – Elm

Ralphie – Elm

George C – Elm

Jack – Birch

Scarlett – Birch

Samuel – Birch

Artur – Birch

Noah B – Willow

Heidi – Willow

Alfie - Willow

Laura- Redwood

Bethany - Redwood

Ash

Eden

For her written work. This week she has tried to challenge herself to take her writing to the next level by using 'and' to extend her sentences. She has written some super sentences about The Little Mermaid,

Mrs Laffan

05.06.2026

Oak

Autumn

For her perseverance in her learning this week. Autumn has been working hard in all areas of her learning this week. Especially in Maths, where she has been working independently.
Well done Autumn!

Mrs Salt

05.06.2026

Elm

Isabelle B.

For her thoughtful and considered contributions to our history lesson. Isabelle shared her ideas about Ancient Egypt and daily life using key historical terms and referring to the source information.

Mrs Shipley-Smith

05.06.2026

Birch

Meval

For working so hard and persevering with being able to punctuate speech in our English lessons this week! Well done, Meval! 😊

Miss Taggart

05.06.2026

Willow

Jaiden

For working independently in the classroom to complete comprehension tasks and to count objects up to 20.
Well done Jaiden!

Miss Dawson & Miss Higgins

05.06.2026

Aspen

Toby-Jay

For

*Working really hard to improve his writing. Using formal language and a range of punctuation.
Well done!*

Mrs Read & Mrs Davies

05.06.2026

Chestnut

Esme

Esme has a awesome attitude towards her learning and is a great example to all her peers. Her writing this week has stood out as she has adapted to a new style of writing quickly and with excellent effect.

Mr Tennuci

05.06.2026

Redwood Taylor

Taylor has really applied himself when writing, both in Humanities and English. He is constantly checking whether he has used his target words and punctuation. Well done!

Mrs Holliday

05.06.2026