

Wow Assembly:

Friday 2nd October 2026

Scientists of the Week!

Oak - Elena

Pine - Chloe

Birch- Lucas

Elm- Eva

Aspen- Ella

Chestnut- Willow

Redwood- Ella

Green Cards!

Alarna M – Oak
George C - Redwood
Brody – Redwood
Harry - Redwood
Lola – Redwood
Clayne – Birch
Ethan – Pine

Oak

Delilah-Rae

For showing excellence this week! Delilah has shown beautiful presentation in her work. She listens carefully to what is expected in her work and tries her best. Well done, Delilah!

Miss Bailey & Mrs Salt

02.10.2026

Elm Theo

For his resilience and excellence in maths this week.
We have been learning how to round numbers to the nearest 10
,100 and 1000. Theo was amazing. Well done 😊

Mrs Salt & Miss Higgins

02.10.2026

Birch Teddy

For his perseverance in PE this week. Teddy was in the role of defender and found it quite tricky to begin with, but he did not give up. Well done, Teddy!

Miss Taggart

02.10.2026

Pine Jack

For working more independently, especially in maths. Jack completes his fluent in five independently and will work on his own when he is certain of the task. He is also starting to attempt tasks before asking for help.
Well done Jack.

Miss Dawson and Mrs Leedham-Hawkes

02.10.2026

Chestnut

Florrie

Florrie has shown a great working attitude this week. Florrie has shown she will always contribute in class even if unsure of an answer. She is someone who responds to advice well and it shows in her work.

Mr Tennuci

02.10.2026

Redwood

I have noticed that in our handwriting sessions, Parker is really concentrating and working on his letter formation. Also, Mrs Clarke commented on how engaged he was in the reading group and made many excellent verbal contributions linked to the text. Well done.

Mrs Holliday

02.10.2026

Aspen

Darcey

Darcey has shown great self-awareness and teamwork this week. She has been awesome at helping and encouraging others that she works with, always with as smile and good nature.
Well done, Darcey!

Mrs Davies and Mrs Read

02.10.2026